Story 1: The Walk to the Park (aw / au)

Yesterday, Paul saw his friend Laura walking to the park.
They paused to draw on the sidewalk with chalk.
A small hawk flew above, and they both looked in awe.
Paul bought some ice cream at a food stall and shared it with Laura.
They sat on the lawn, watched children crawl around, and talked about their day.

Story 2: The Noisy Zoo (ew / oo / oi / oy)

Lewis took his boy to the zoo on a sunny afternoon.
They saw kangaroos, a noisy group of coyotes, and a bamboo forest near the lions.
The boy enjoyed chewing bubble gum while pointing at the animals.
They used a new toy camera to take photos of a zebra and a baboon.
“Wow, this zoo is full of joy!” the boy said with a big smile.

Story 3: A Loud Storm at Home (ow / ou)

It was a cloudy evening when Sarah sat on her couch.
Outside, the wind was loud, and it rained down.
She saw her brown dog growl at the sound of thunder.
Suddenly, the power went out, and Sarah lit a candle.
She found her favorite flower in a vase and smiled, knowing the storm would soon be over.
